COLD DECEMBER.

A Long Cold Spell.

Our oldest inhabitants, in former years, generally regarded the weather previous to Christmas mild and pleasant it was here that December was as pleasant as May. But the usual condi-tions of meteorology have undergone some distinct changes—we have had the weather of more civilized climes. The character of the winter weather has been the same, but prolonged from the 9th to the 27th of December. The character of the weather usually changes every three days, at least a cold spell does not last longer than that period of time. But in the month just closed the weather went to an extreme which is considered remarkable in this region, though we have had colder weather, but of less duration. The climatic change, so much commented on, is a realized fact, taking for granted the cold freezing spell in December. We visited the United States Signal Office, and found Sergeant Lanouette, ever kind and obliging, who fur-nished us with the facts of the December weather, recorded in his neat and well kept office. The cold period set in December 9th, and continued until the morning of December 27th, when a thawing spell occurred for that day. During these 18 days the mercury in the thermemeter was below freezing point. The highest temperature being 34 deg. on the 9th, 29 degrees on the 10th, the lowest temperature being Christmas morning, the thermometer indicating 11 8-10th degrees below zero. For four days, commencing on the 22d and ending on the 25th, the mercury in the thermometer ranged from one degree below zero to eleven eight-tenths below zero. On the 17th 3 3-10ths degrees below zero. The mean temperature was 6 3-10th degrees below zero on those who participated in the exercise Christmas day. The prevailing we noticed Mrs. Jennie Moore, Mrs. B. direction of wind during the H. Rice, Miss Lizzie Culver, Miss Anmonth was from the north and northwest, and the highest velocity was 44 miles per hour on the 26th. During the month there was considerable cold and damp winds from the south and southeast. The cold weather greatly exceeds the cold periods of last winter. Our usually dry cold weather is substi-tuted for the humid granger weather of the East, and at this rate of change it will not be long until we have other civilizing influences.

The closing of the month witnessed the heaviest if not the coldest experience. After Sunday's thaw and rain, and Tuesday. The snow was several inches in depth and drifted to over a foot deep in many places. The mercury fell to nine degrees below zero Wed-The religious ferver is taken hold in day morning. Some of our Democratic friends are laying plans for the places now held by day, and covered the ground to a depth the Republican rascals, and speeding of four and five inches, and drifting in places to one foot.

It is said that Republican officials will be abundantly ripe in the summer months when the Democratic gobbler city this week. Mr. Jones has charge will get in his work, and turn his rasof Mr. Zimmermann's cattle ranches cally self in the place made vacant by his unfortunate Republican brother. And if Cleve-District Court. The case of Dave land should enforce the civil service law the prizes will be like sour grapes.

We take great pleasure in expressing our most heartful thanks to the many friends of Dodge City, who so kindly Christmas Mr. P. Wilden gave us about fifteen dollars, and on Christmas we were made happy by a presentation of over sixty dollars. This amount was made up mostly from outside parties. Surely Dodge City is not the worst place that can be found. Mr. Sitler and Captain J. S. Welch, will accept our most sincere thanks for the active ernment buildings at Fort Supply, was at home last week, on a visit to his fam-N. G. COLLINS. tion paper. MISS M. COLLINS.

This ale is said to be the finest ever produced in this or any other country. It has been awarded 14 gold and silver medals over all competitors, in Europe and America.

An intoxicated man, whose gray hairs indicated his age, was staggering up Bridge street one day last week, gave unmistakable signs of his muddled condition. He was muttering some thing to himself, and spoke quite audibly these words: "Every body is going to hell, and I'm going to hell." Dodge City whisky has the fire and brimestone to bring on the tortures of hell.

A settler, whose name we did not learn, who resides adout 40 miles southward of Dodge City, was pursued by wolves one day last week, and made a narrow escape. The man was engaged in chasing the wolves with dogs, but the infuriated animals turned upon the man who barely escaped with his life.

CHRISTMAS.

Two Fine Entertainments.

The Christian people of Dodge City commemorated Christmas in the custom according to usage. The day and Christmas eve were cold and embracing, and relieving the dread a "green Christ-mas" brings. In fact, Christmas morning was the coldest of the season, as indicated by the thermometer. The mercury fell to 12 degrees below zero. It was a clear bright day, and a light fall of snow on Christmas eve covered the ground evenly, and the cherished desire for a "white Christmas" was amply gratified.

At the Methodist church, which was crowded, some extensive preparations had been made for the benefit of the children. A huge ship had been improvised and this structure was loaded with presents of all kinds, of every value from five cents to five dollars. Knights of Pythias Band was present and enlivened the occasion with several fine airs. The band is making fine progress, and is an ornament to the city. The following is the programme of the evening: Music by the Band. Music by the Sundy School. Recitation—Christmas—by Anna Hobble. Song—National Hymn—Miss Mary Martin. Tableau-Before and after marriage. Song-Little Lights-Nettie Heinz Tableau-Woman's Rights. Tableau-Christmas Eve

Among na Sipple, Miss Nella Carnahan, Mrs. J. M. Rittenhouse and Ed. Slaven and a host of children. The scenes were really excellent, and the performance amusing and gratifying. About $60 was re-alized, as proceeds of the entertainment. An embroyo log cabin contained the presents for the children. The following is the programme which will give some idea of the character of the performance:

Pursuant to adjournment, the meet-M. E. Church, Saturday evening, Dec. 27th, at 7:30, p. m., called to order by the chairman, Elder Collins, who called upon Bro. Sheldon to lead the devotional exercises. After which the secretary stated what had been done at the last meeting. The report of the committee to raise funds to secure an evangelist being called for S. Mullendore on behalf of the committee, reported progress.

The report was approved and the committee continued. On motion, the pastors of the city were appointed a committee to correspond with A. J. Bell, of Chicago, and secure his services at the earliest time possible. On motion, the committee was instructed to write Mr. Bell that one hundred dollars is pledged to secure his services.

The committee on correspondence was also appointed a committee to apply for a pass for Mr. Bell from Kansas City to Dodge City and return. On motion, the pastors of the city were requested to announce from their pulpits on the coming Sabbath morning and evening that it has been decided to make a united effort to promote a revival and that a committee had been appointed to raise funds for that purpose; and to urge the people to contribute when called upon by that committee. On motion, adjourned to meet Monday evening at the same place.

We do not to smile upon it. It was the revolt of the Barnburners against Cass in 1848 which split the Democratic party sufficiently to give that State to Taylor and insure his election. The movement was mainly occasioned, too, by Democratic wrangling over the offices, which gives some ground for hope that history will repeat itself in the manner suggested. Mr. Cleveland will have to apportion the fodder a good deal more judiciously than Mr. Polk did, or he will not be able to prevent a Democratic split in New York in 1888.
